YERINGTON'S COLLEGE

Mr. Yerington will start a class in shorthand, Monday, Jan. 31st, 4:00 o'clock p. m., at his college building. Over a dozen of Alma's young people enrolled there during 1920. Several have already enrolled to begin on the 31st of this month. A bus load goes from Alma to his college every day.

The students spend only an hour in his college, then return home and prepare their lessons. Each student has a typewriter in her own home.

Many of his students have found positions in our factory offices, and have given unqualified satisfaction. Mr. Yerington has perfected a system of shorthand whereby the students are saved the impossible task of committing those terrible tables of word-signs. He teaches shorthand as he would a child to read.

He has placed scores of students in responsible positions since he taught in this city. Many of his students complete the course in three months, but the usual time is six months. Some are filling positions of $4,000 and $5,000 a year.

Just one year ago, a lady went from St. Louis to one of our largest city business colleges to study shorthand, and was gone eleven and one-half months before finishing, and then didn't secure a position.

At the same time, another lady entered Yerington's College for shorthand, remained just three months, was graduated and immediately secured a position. She worked eight and one-half months before her friend was graduated, earning over a thousand dollars. Both were high-school graduates before they took up shorthand.

Tuition, eleven dollars a month. This includes typewriter in your own home. Phone or write Yerington's College, St. Louis, Mich. 83-1-c

IN THE PICTURES

The master screen craftsman, David Wark Griffith, producer of the screen's greatest sensations, creator of the most advanced innovations in motion picture productions, finder and developer of the world's greatest screen stars, has produced another wonderful production, "The Love Flower," which is being heralded everywhere as a creation of exquisite beauty, haunting charm and spirited drama. United Artists Corporation recently announced its release and the first showing of this newest Griffith production in this community will be at the Strand theater on Sunday.

Words of the most superlative degree and descriptions of the most laudatory nature have not been found to express in adequate terms this wonderful picture play of love and adventure such as only a Griffith, a master, may reveal in all its beauty, strength and excitement.

Its theme, primarily, is of unusual interest, interwoven with side lights of intricate complications that add materially to its action, its heart interest, its suspense and its ultimate justification, for it is an unusually dramatic story of the wonderful love of a daughter for her heart-broken father, who being hounded to the very end of the world, dares to plan the undoing of the man who is desirous of bringing ultimate disgrace upon the very light of her heart and soul and unhappiness to her every thought.

Not one woman in ten thousand would do what this daughter dared to do to save her father. Not one person of her sex in many times that number would have clung to the heart strings of her parents, through their many trials and tribulations, with every atom of strength of her frail body, as did this girl of nature, this child of all that was good and true and wholesome. Yet this girl, without the knowledge of her father, plotted to give away all that was near and dear to her, even to the extent of her own life to save for him a few more happy days on earth.
